

Award for the Business Park Manager of the Year

SPONSORED BY

About this award

The business park has become the location and destination of choice for many innovative and enterprising companies that are located in Oxfordshire. Cutting edge ideas and approaches to tenant management are at the centre of this offer which helps to maintain the high rents and low availability of space. Who are behind these successes and what are these companies doing to showcase their business parks to potential and existing tenants! This award will reward an individual who can show how they have driven change, ensured low number of voids, increased the rental activity and encouraged innovation within business park.

How to enter
