Award for Best Residential Development

SPONSORED BY

About this award

New housing is an important part of Oxfordshire vision for growth. This award recognises a housing development (or developer) which manages to achieve the proverbial holy grail of matching the needs of the planners, the local community and help to fulfil the needs of Oxfordshire’s housing plans. Submissions need to showcase an approach to quality design, placemaking, materials and the procurement process helping to ensure the successful completion of the project. To be accepted, the project must have been completed or a section have been finished in 2019 and could include designs for Garden Towns or Urban Villages.

How to enter

Evidence can be financial/numerical, including past award’s or just your own carefully crafted words. However, it must all be wrapped up in a short document (two pages A4 max) with supporting hi-res photos, a hi-res logo (jpeg or eps) or video. You can nominate yourself and others.
